

Bellingham Farmers Market

Busking Rules and Regulations

2009

- All material must be considered family-friendly. Obscenity or indecency will not be tolerated.
- It is the busker's responsibility to manage crowds around their performance to make sure that foot traffic is able to reasonably move around their performance.
- Your daily badge must be displayed at all times. Buskers without badges will be asked to leave the Market immediately
- Only one badge holder is necessary per group
- Performances shall only take place at the times and locations designated by BFM.
- Buskers must sign up for each busking location and time slot prior to performing.
- You may not stay in location longer than assigned, even if another Busker does not arrive to take your spot
- Performers cannot ask for money but may place a donation basket in one location; it cannot be passed around.
- Performers may sell CDs and/or tapes, but they cannot sell anything else.
- Performers are responsible for clean-up of all litter at the performance site
- Knives, swords, torches, flames, axes, saws or other objects that can cause bodily injury to any person are prohibited
- Amplification devices are prohibited without prior written permission from BFM staff
- Use of power sources located in the Depot Market pavilion, outside sheds or anywhere on the Market site is prohibited unless approved by BFM staff.
- Performers may not perform with more instruments, props, equipment, merchandise or other items than the performer can reasonably transport or remove at one time

Anyone who breaks any of the above rules will be asked to leave. Repeated violations of the above rules may result in suspension or termination of busking privileges at the Market.
